

NO ACTION TAKEN TO AVERT STRIKE OF RAILWAYMEN

Union Chiefs Will Meet With Hines
Today

SITUATION CRITICAL

(By The Associated Press)
DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 10.—Failure of the railroad unions and Director General Hines to reach an agreement at the Washington conference may result in a general walkout of railway workers, according to Allen E. Barker, president of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, who on Monday called a strike of his union for February 17.

A message received late today, Mr. Barker stated tonight, indicated that heads of thirteen railroad men's organizations now in Washington would "stand pat" and act as a unit in pressing their demands.

"It is my belief," he said, "that even should officers of other unions not call strikes, many thousands of railroad men in other departments will join hands with the maintenance of way and shop laborers."

Mr. Barker reiterated his statement that the resources of the union would be used in fighting any possible court action to prevent the strike. His comment on word from Kansas that officials were planning to invoke the new industrial court act was "They will need a lot of jail, I believe the law is unconstitutional. We shall disregard any power that tells us we are not free to strike."

Meanwhile plans were going ahead for putting the strike into effect. In sending out the call it was found the union numbers 287,000 members and all but 28,000 employed on Canadian roads, it was said, are affected.

Confer With Hines Today.
Washington, Feb. 10.—The railroad administration, hearing the end of its control over the nation's rail transportation systems, tonight faced a critical situation with respect to the wage demands of more than 2,000,000 employees. Conferences tomorrow between Director General Hines and leaders of the workers' unions probably will determine the outcome of the situation.

Officials of the unions submitted to the director general today a statement on all important questions on which the two sides were at variance, and will require discussion before a settlement can be reached. Mr. Hines, informed the Union leaders he would reply tomorrow to their new statement of claims.

Meanwhile W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was pressing Mr. Hines for an answer to the demands of his individual organization and insisting the trainmen were ready to strike unless a satisfactory settlement was reached. Railroad administration officials also received informal notice that they must contend with a strike called by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Shop Laborers.

Mr. Lee declined to discuss the plans of his organization. The strike vote taken under his instructions was said to show a large majority of the trainmen favorable to a strike. This last phase of the situation was given railroad administration officials concern because should the complete tie-up of traffic could be the only result. The thousands of engineers, firemen and conductors could not operate the trains, for in many states they would be forbidden to work under "full crew" laws unless all trainmen required were on duty, it was explained.

Officials of the other three train operating unions were declared not to be supporting Mr. Lee aggressively in his demands, although he was said to have communicated with each of them before notifying Mr. Hines of his intention to cancel the wage agreement.

The action of President Barker of the maintenance of way employees was declared again by railroad administration officials to be in violation of his wage agreement. It was said Mr. Barker had signed the agreement only last November 22 and that it had gone into effect on December 16. A search of the law in Mr. Hines' office was said to have revealed no communication cancelling the agreement with the government.

OSBORNE TESTIFIES AT NEWBERRY TRIAL

Tells of Defeat For Senatorship at 1918 Primaries By Ford and Principal Defendant

(By The Associated Press)
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 10.—Chase S. Osborne, testified in the Newberry election conspiracy trial in federal court here today. He told the jury that he had once "tried to be governor of Michigan" and "thought" he was a candidate for the United States senate in 1918 when the principal defendant, Truman H. Newberry defeated him and Henry Ford in the primary.

The testimony, punctuated with typical phrases, came as the climax to a day which again brought in what the government attorneys considered direct connection of Senator Newberry with the campaign and also brought to the witness chair the first defendant to plead "no contest" to the indictment.

Altho Mr. Osborne's appearance as a witness had been heralded and the defense had announced it was "ready for him," his cross-examination was deferred. James J. Murfin of counsel for the defense, told the court that two of the defendants mentioned in the testimony were ill in Detroit and that Constantine A. Daniels, a Grand Rapids politician whose name came into the story, was absent from court. He therefore asked postponement until he could get into communication with these men.

Mr. Osborne said Daniels told him that Mark T. McKee, law partner of Paul King, manager of the Newberry campaign had "possibilities of an organization which could defeat the senatorship for $150,000."

McKee is convalescing at Detroit from an attack of pneumonia. The former governor next told of a conversation with Milton Oakman, a Detroit political leader who is also ill there. He said he told Oakman to "make it cost them what you are worth."

Edward O. McLean of Milwaukee, former publisher of a paper at Ludington, Michigan was assured in a campaign that when he met King's suggestion that Osborne quit the campaign so Ford could be defeated. The governor related some strong language he used in this conversation and apologized for repeating it, saying that he was "worked up" at the time.

Richard Fletcher, state labor commissioner, another defendant, was also mentioned in the Osborne testimony. The witness said that when he met Fletcher early in the campaign he was for him, but when he talked with him later he learned Fletcher was against him.

FIRST GUN FIRED FOR LABOR CONGRESS

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Organized labor's campaign to elect a congress friendly to it was opened formally today by Samuel Gompers, president and J. A. O'Donnell, vice president of the American Federation of Labor in addresses before shipbuilders trades convention here. Both speakers vigorously assailed the present congress as the most reactionary in the history of this country and declared that from it labor need expect not the slightest assistance in the shape of "remedial legislation."

Gompers told the representatives of 500,000 shipyard workers present to join the federation in its fight to "reward our friends and defeat our enemies. Mr. Gompers promised them every assistance of his organization in forcing the government to continue the war time ship construction program to the end of the war."

WILL RESUME COAL HEARINGS NEXT WEEK

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Hearing before the senate commerce sub-committee investigating the coal situation will be resumed next week with representatives of public utilities companies and other consumers testifying.

The president's investigating commission. Chairman Frelinghuysen said tonight, "has been hearing the miners and operators, but not the consumers. Whether this commission had authority to impose the cost of its recommendations on the consuming public its conclusions will probably be treated as justifying imposition on the people millions of dollars in the price of this commodity. Certainly the people should not without a hearing be saddled with a burden of an increase price even to meet increased wages."

FORMER CROWN PRINCE OFFERS SELF TO ALLIES

Willing to Stand Trial for Wrongs of Countrymen

MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—President Wilson had before him tonight a personal cablegram from Frederick Wilhelm, former crown prince of Germany suggesting "if the allied and associated governments want a victim let them take me instead of the nine hundred Germans who have committed no other offense than that of serving their country in the war."

What action the president might take on the message, which presumably was identical with that reported in Amsterdam dispatches as sent to the rulers and presidents of other powers opposed to Germany in the war was not disclosed. There was a suggestion at the white house that he might reply, making his message the vehicle for a re-expression of the opposition to trial of the former German emperor or other enemy officials expressed by American delegates at Paris. In some quarters, however, the opinion prevailed that he would not acknowledge its receipt since it was pointed out the United States is not a party to the treaty or a member of the league of nations and has no legal voice in any of the proceedings as to extradition of German officials or officers for trial. The message did not come thru state department channels but direct from the refugee in Holland of the former German emperor.

The suggestion that Mr. Wilson might frame a reply, it was indicated was based rather on knowledge of his attitude towards the proposed wholesale trial of German officials and officers than on any intimation of his decision obtained today. There was no doubt among officials of his strong opposition to the whole extradition proceedings.

The president was said to believe that Germany should be permitted to work out her own salvation without the embarrassment involved in making possible "offenders" out of officers, whether the former emperor or his son, or any high officer or official.

Cablegram to Wilson.
Similar cablegrams are understood to have been forwarded to the kings of England, Belgium, Italy, the emperor of Japan, and the president of France. The message to President Wilson follows:

"To the President of the United States of North America: Mr. Wilson, Washington: 'Mr. President—The demand for the delivery of Germans every walk of life has again confronted my country. I have again for years of war and one year of severe internal struggles with a crisis that is without a precedent in the history of the world as affecting the life of a people. That a government can be found in Germany which would carry out the demanded surrender is out of the question; the consequences to Europe of an enforcement of the demand by violence are incalculable, hatred and revenge would be made eternal. As the former successor to the throne of my fatherland, I am standing at this fateful hour to stand up for my compatriots. If the allied and associated governments want a victim, let them take me instead of the 900 Germans who have committed no offense other than that of serving their country in the war. Wilhelm. Wieringen Island Feb. 9, 1920."

SHERIFF ANSWERS CONTEMPT CHARGES

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 10.—Sheriff Robert T. Gorman of Livingston county, cited to appear before the supreme court today for contempt of court, filed an answer to the charge that he failed to obey a mandate to deliver Stephen P. Lator, a prisoner, to the Joliet penitentiary.

Gorman said he did not receive the court's mandate until January 6 and that he was unable to start for Joliet with Lator before Jan. 9 because of a session of the grand jury. Lator was pardoned by Governor Lowden on January 9. Gorman's answer was taken under advisement by the court.

Dubuque, Iowa, Feb. 10.—Fire tonight destroyed St. Vincent's convent and school and spread to the church. The loss on the convent and school was estimated at $40,000.

NOTED PHYSICIAN REPORTS ON PRESIDENT'S CONDITION

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 10.—The Baltimore Sun today published a copyright despatch from Washington giving an interview with Dr. Hugh H. Young of Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore on the condition of President Wilson. Dr. Young has been one of the physicians in attendance upon the president. Dr. Young in part said:

"From the very beginning the medical men associated with the case have never had anything to conceal. When I first saw the president in October, a crisis had arisen of such gravity owing to the development of prostatic obstruction that an emergency operation to relieve this situation was contemplated but by fortuitous and wholly unexpected change in the president's condition the obstruction began to disappear."

"The improvement in this respect which has been steady, is now complete. The president was originally sound when I saw him first, and I found him not only organically sound but further all the organs were functioning in a perfectly normal, healthy manner."

"The president's general condition and specifically the slight impairment of his left arm and leg have improved more slowly, it is true, but surely, steadily. There have been no setbacks, no backward steps, and rumors to this effect are rubbish."

TROOPS STILL PATROL LEXINGTON

(By The Associated Press)
LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 10.—No lessening of military precautions to prevent a recurrence of mob violence in Lexington was apparent today. Federal soldiers continued to surround the Fayette court house, where Will Lockett, negro, slayer of 10 year old Geneva Hartman and center of the disturbance Monday in which five persons lost their lives, was confined under heavy guard. Patrols guarded every avenue to the city and detachments still were stationed in the warehouse district.

Brig. Gen. F. C. Marshall, characterized these measures merely as precautionary. So satisfied was he with the situation that he called a conference with Major General Charles P. Sumner, commander of the first division, who arrived during the day to announce the number of patrols gradually would be withdrawn and that half of the troops here would be sent to Louisville.

Lockett heavily guarded remained in his cell in the court house. General Marshall paid a tribute to the people of Lexington and Fayette county for their ready submission to martial law and characterized it as "the first evidence of a big reaction in the whole country, which is beginning to switch back from Bolshevism to law and order."

Citizens, both black and white, walked the streets unmolested tonight except that each impartially was searched for weapons wherever they entered the restricted district in the vicinity of the court house.

LOWDEN ADDRESSES INTER-CITY ROTARIANS

(By The Associated Press)
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10.—Governor Frank O. Lowden was the principal speaker at the banquet which closed an all day inter-city meeting of Illinois Rotary Clubs here tonight. Taking as his subject the part that Rotary should play in local self-government, he declared "local self-government and ability to govern ourselves at home is the very cornerstone of our government."

Cornelius J. Doyle, former secretary of state of Illinois, spoke in the absence of Albert S. Adams, of Atlanta, Ga. president of the International Association of Rotary, whose illness prevented him from coming to the city.

The inter-city Rotary clubs sent large delegations to the meeting. Hannibal, Mo. and Burlington, Iowa, Rotarians were also well represented.

PICKED SAILORS GUARD FORTY MUTINEERS

(By The Associated Press)
HAMILTON, Bermuda, Feb. 10.—Twenty picked United States sailors under command of Lieutenant Hanson, U. S. N., were put aboard the American shipping board steamer Poughkeepsie today to guard forty mutineers on the voyage to Hampton Roads. The crew of the Poughkeepsie mutinied February 5 when their articles expired.

Consul General Swalm upheld the contention of Captain Delaney that the crew must work the ship back to the final port of discharge in the United States.

IRRECONCILABLES REVIVE DEBATE ON PEACE TREATY

Borah and Knox Denounce Pact's Economic Clauses

HOOVER IS ALSO ATTACKED

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Debate on the peace treaty was revived today in the senate although technically had laid the pet aside for another week.

Irreconcilable opponents of ratification who yesterday voted against resuming consideration of the treaty today brought the subject to the senate floor.

Sensors Borah of Idaho and Knox of Pennsylvania, both Republicans denounced the treaty's economic clauses as "cruel" and "murderous" in its effect on the conquered peoples and in the less direct consequences on the rest of the world.

Sensor Borah also assailed Herbert Hoover's stand on the treaty and called on him to reply to the list of questions which have been put by the Idaho senator to several Republican and Democratic candidates for the presidency. The debate was preceded by completion of the parliamentary steps necessary to restore the treaty to a status making formal consideration possible the foreign relations committee reporting the pact back to the senate with the Republican reservations framed at the last session of congress. Notice that formal consideration in the senate would be requested Monday was served by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts.

Both Senator Borah and Senator Knox declared the treaty would "improve" Germany, Austria and Hungary and that the result would be to destroy commercial cornerstones on which rested the financial stability of Europe.

Sensors Hitchcock of Nebraska, the Democratic leader and Sterling, Republican of South Dakota, replied briefly declaring the only way the United States now could throw its influence for stability was by becoming a party to the treaty.

"It is one thing," declared Senator Borah, "to punish Germany, but it is an entirely different thing to reduce countless thousands to starvation. It is an unjust thing to put upon a debtor a debt which he cannot pay, but it is a cruel and murderous thing to put on a debt which involves indirectly as this one does the distress of others."

"Yet we are asked here to agree to this treaty which will impoverish millions and then we are asked to appropriate money to feed the people we have impoverished."

Suggesting that Lloyd George had been led to make "impossible exactions" of Germany by promises given "in the heat of a political campaign," Senator Hitchcock declared the United States could best exert its influence for alleviation of the peace terms by ratifying the treaty and accepting membership on the powerful reparations commission.

Without such representation he argued this country would be powerless to intercede.

To this Senator Borah replied that since the European nations had overruled the United States once on that proposal they could be expected to do so again, while Senator Knox declared that while the German reparations bill could be increased under the treaty's provisions by a similar majority of the reparations commission, it would take unanimous consent to reduce it.

Mr. Hoover's statement Sunday night that he was for the treaty with any reservations necessary to safeguard the constitution and the nation's traditions was declared by Senator Borah to put Mr. Hoover apparently in the same attitude as the irreconcilables.

During discussion of Mr. Hoover's statement, Senator Borah resurrected a reservation to Article Ten which he said Senator Hitchcock submitted in the senate last November. The only difference between the reservation and the one drawn by Senator Lodge the Idaho senator declared was that the former contained the word "unless" where the latter used the word "until."

CONTESTS SEAT OF DELEGATE CURTIS

Morris Man Files Ouster Proceeding Against Right of Grant Park Representative to Sit at Constitutional Convention.

(By The Associated Press)
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10.—The right of State Senator Edward C. Curtis of Grant Park to sit as a delegate in the Illinois constitutional convention was submitted to the Sangamon county circuit court today by J. W. Roush of Morris, Ill., who was a candidate against Senator Curtis at the primary election. Attorneys for Roush presented a petition to file ouster proceedings against Senator Curtis. It is alleged that under the present constitution Senator Curtis can hold "no" other public office except his seat in the general assembly.

Judge E. Smith has set next Sunday as a date for a hearing on Mr. Roush's petition.

Members of the general assembly who are also delegates to the convention are besides Senator Curtis, Senators Morton D. Hull of Chicago and Henry M. Dunlap of Savoy and Representatives William H. Cruden of Chicago, David E. Shanahan of Chicago and William M. Scanlan of Peru.

Sensor Hull sent his resignation as state senator to Governor Lowden and it was accepted. The other members of the legislature did not resign. They are said to take the position that they are retired automatically from the general assembly upon their election as delegates to the convention.

At a brief session of the convention today sixteen new proposals were introduced. Several committees held meetings this afternoon to arrange for hearings on proposals which have been submitted to them.

ASSEMBLY CLOSES CASE OF SOCIALISTS

Defense Will Present Their Side of Unsettling of Five New York
Assemblymen

(By The Associated Press)
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 10.—Counsel for the assembly judiciary committee late today completed presentation of evidence against the five suspended Socialist assembly men being tried by the committee on charges of disloyalty.

In closing its case the prosecution, which had charged the Socialist party with conspiring to bring about a revolution in this country drew from opposing forces acknowledgment that, by a referendum just completed the party membership had ratified a report submitted at the Chicago convention last year pledging support to the third (Moscow) International.

The defense conceded that the locals to which the defendants belonged had voted for the report. "The Socialist party of the United States," says the report, "declares itself in support of the third (Moscow) International because."

"(b) 'Moscow' is threatened by the combined capitalistic forces of the world simply because it is proletarian."

"(c) Under these circumstances whatever we may have to say to Moscow afterwards it is the duty of Socialists to stand by it now because its fall would mean the fall of Socialist Republics in Europe and also the disappearance of Socialism hopes for many years to come."

CONTROVERSY OVER WAR DECORATIONS ENTERS NEW PHASE

Senate Committee Recalls Admiral
Sims

FIRM ON HIS STAND

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The controversy over naval war decorations took a new turn today before the senate investigating committee the question of just what was said in conversations between Rear-Admiral William S. Sims and a trio of members of congress in Paris during the war, displacing to some extent inquiry into changes made by Secretary Daniels in decorations recommended by Admiral Sims.

The admiral was recalled to supplement his previous testimony Chairman Hale of the committee pointing out to him that the secretary had appeared since the admiral's last hearing. It was in answering some of the statements made by Mr. Daniels that Admiral Sims touched upon the question of conversations he had with Representatives Byrnes and Whaley of South Carolina and Senator Glass, then representative from Virginia. Secretary Daniels, before the committee, had referred to a speech in the house by Representative Byrnes in which the South Carolina representative asserted that Admiral Sims had told him the armistice was forced on the allies by failure of the American army to break thru the German lines, the failure being due to a collapse of the American service of supply. Admiral Sims today denied that he had made such assertions except in repeating rumors then current in France and which, he said, he warned his visitors not to believe. He denied flatly other statements attributed to him by Representative Byrnes and his associates that the American merchant marine should not be developed and the seas be left to Great Britain. At the request of Senator Pittman of Nevada, Democratic member of the investigating committee, Chairman Hale asked Representatives Byrnes and Whaley and Senator Glass to come before the committee.

Representative Byrnes not only reiterated all he had previously said but added that he had personally reported his conversation with Admiral Sims to President Wilson before Mr. Wilson made his first trip to Paris.

Byrnes added that he had not reported also to Secretary Daniels because since the war was over he did not wish "to stir up anything."

Sensor Glass, who was a member of the lower house at the time, while recalling the conversation with Admiral Sims, much as Byrnes reported it put a somewhat different interpretation on what the officer said. He did not understand Admiral Sims to wish to "discredit the army" he said adding:

"I rather believed that he was simply telling us what he had heard and thought to be true."

Representative Whaley did not appear today because of illness. Admiral Sims' reference to the Paris conversations was made after he read a prepared statement reaffirming his position as to naval awards and asserting that Mr. Daniels' method of dealing with them had injected a defeatist policy into the navy department more dangerous than Bolshevism to organized government. He also characterized some parts of Mr. Daniels' testimony before the committee as "very surprising" and went into details of some cases of awards to sustain his own views.

Taking up the statements of Representative Byrnes to the house, Admiral Sims said the representative either misunderstood him or confused his remarks with those of others to whom they had talked in France. He had sought, he said, to dis-

Attorney General Palmer has made no direct reference to the controversy between Col. Bryan and Gov. Edwards of New Jersey, but has left no doubt as to his own position on the prohibition question. The attorney general says it would be absolute folly for any party to attack prohibition in its platform at this time by seeking to bring to prominence the old issue of state's rights.

Argentina has followed the example of the U. S. in deporting radicals. More than 300 political agitators have been sent from that country into Russia or some other part of the globe, where their activities will not be as obnoxious as they are in South America. If this shipment policy keeps on there will be enough of the undesirable to set up a kingdom of their own.

Mrs. Catt and other suffrage leaders are referring to the coming convention of the national suffrage association as the last. It probably will be for the goal the association set so many years ago has been almost reached, since ratification of the suffrage amendment is almost certain. However, there will not be an end to the organization for it will continue to work under the name of the league of women voters.

SHOWING INDEPENDENCE

Democrats in congress in caucus have gone on record on the basis of 106 to 17 opposed to universal military training. This was done notwithstanding the fact that the president favors military training and has stated his position clearly. Evidently Mr. Wilson does not have the absolute party control that was his even a few months ago. Then he had but to let it be known what policy or proposed law he favored and the Democrats in congress meekly supported him, whether or not his opinions were identical with their own.

THE DIFFERENCE IN ORATORY

The Bloomington Bulletin in referring to a recent speech by former Governor Fifer talks of the old time eloquence of the speaker. This reminds one that nowadays little is heard of platform oratory. The present day orator depends more on logic and more upon the soundness of his argument than he does upon the phraseology. The Bulletin goes on to say that Wendell Phillips, famous for eloquence, once asserted that "men are moved more by impulse than conviction." If that be true, the present day type of platform oratory has not near the strength that attached to it in the earlier days.

THE U. OF I. AND PRIVATE FUNDS

It is said that there is a definite effort being made by authorities and alumni of the university of Illinois to have funds raised for that institution by private subscription. Here is a guess that it would be mighty difficult to persuade the average Illinoisan that the University thru the millions for its use, is not already receiving all the money necessary for its maintenance and operation. If university authorities were compelled to get out and rustle for funds to meet the ordinary expenses, just as is true of other institutions, they would think quite differently about the generosity of the state appropriations for the university. Certainly the university should not expect to solicit funds privately in addition to provisions made for it thru taxation.

A CHANCE FOR CO-OPERATIVE WORK

The Red Cross society is willing to co-operate with Passavant hospital authorities in making available the new rooms at that hospital. The purpose is thru quick action to take advantage of unused hospital space for the flu epidemic. Last year the Red Cross did a wonderful work thru the emergency hospital and it so happens that Passavant hospital this year is able to offer much better facilities for carrying on the work of a kind done last year at the emergency hospital. There are no furnishings in the rooms at the new "wing" at Passavant but there is heat and light and the matter of securing beds and bedding can be promptly solved. It is for just such emergencies in peace times that the Red Cross maintains its organization and it is fortunate that the hospital has certain facilities and equipment that can be used at this time, thus simplifying the whole project.

UNITY OF INTEREST

A get together meeting is proposed for all city employees and those who are in any way attached to the city government. It is too early to tell what will be the result of this government, but there are good probabilities in it. It has long been the custom of large corporations to have heads of departments get together for conferences at stated times. In many of these institutions the under employees, with the end in view of building up a unity of effort and of enabling employees to catch the vision of those directing corporation affairs.

It is something of this same idea no doubt that has actuated the mayor in proposing the get together dinner. It will certainly be helpful from a municipal government standpoint to have the employees from the different departments commingling in this way and there will come about a better understanding of the various problems that face the city. A more correct idea of the purposes and goals of the present administration will result.

The College Hall is rented to an individual who furnishes board at $1.50 per week. But those who desire it may obtain plain board at a cheaper rate." Washing was about 50 cts. per dozen.

As to outfit: "The most essential articles are a plain table, two or three chairs, a pall, a wash bowl and pitcher, andirons, shovel and tongs, bedstead and bed clothing." Of course this was in the College building.

Graduates. "For the information of our patrons is annexed a list of the Graduates of this College from its foundation." This began with the class of 1835 and ended with that of 1841; thirty three in all. But they became clergymen, doctors of divinity, business men, physicians, an author of note, a Governor and U. S. Senator, a college president, two Moderators of the Presbyterian General Assembly and a farmer or more. That was not so bad, either, for a college in the "Far West," and a state with about four hundred thousand people in 1840.

Some Well Known Names afterward, among the students, besides those already referred to, were Judge T. J. C. Flagg, Rev. S. B. Fairbank, M. P. Ayers, E. S. Baker, Rev. Thos. Beecher, Newton Bateman, Jno. T. Morton, Samuel Willard, H. K. Jones, Henry Wing, Augustus E. Ayers, Gen. John Cook, D. Wilder Fairbank, Russell B. Mitchell, David Pierson, and Austin Rockwell.

MILLIKIN SWAMPS ILLINOIS COLLEGE

Visitors Win by Score of 53 to 15—Illinois Did Well in First Half But Fell Down in Second.

Millikin university swamped Illinois college at basketball in David Prince gymnasium Tuesday evening by a score of 53 to 15.

Harmon's team was shot to pieces by sickness and the failure of Jones in his studies and the men entered the game with the cold Illinois spirit lacking.

Cully and Mutch were in the game but neither was in form as a result of their recent attacks of flu. Antrobus, Tomlinson and Andrew made Illinois' score.

Coach Wann has a well balanced team this year. It probably is one of the strongest that ever represented Millikin. Poscover was not with the squad but he was not missed and it is said that he really slows up the speed of the team.

Gill, Millikin center was a whole team by himself and was all over the floor. Young was a close running mate for Gill. Every man on the team made one of more baskets.

The score at the end of the first half was 23 to 12. This was not too bad and it seemed there was still a chance for Illinois. However, in the second half Millikin put on more speed while Illinois slumped and only scored three points. The score:

Illinois: F. G. F. T. T. L.
Barnes, f. 0 0 0

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of mentholized Arcline mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished.

It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffing, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and snuff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

BELIEVES CONDITIONS GETTING BETTER

Physician Says Crisis Has Passed on Local Flu Situation—Some Cities Less Fortunate.

A Jacksonville physician yesterday expressed the belief that the flu epidemic is at its height here. In fact, he believes that the "peak" has been passed and that the epidemic is now receding. Let us hope that this prophecy proves true. It is a fact that there are few families in Jacksonville with a membership of four or more who at least two are not now ill or have been so within the past two weeks.

Fortunately the flu this year doesn't seem to be as severe a form as last year. It is also a fact that the people are not as frightened about the disease as they were a year ago. They know too, better how to combat it and for these reasons the situation has not been nearly as bad this year.

Other cities have not been so fortunate. The establishment of an emergency hospital in Decatur has already been mentioned. In Springfield some stringent measures have been adopted to prevent the spread of the epidemic. Public funerals have been discontinued by the superintendent of the health department and other plans followed to prevent large assemblies.

The Jacksonville situation has been described by Dr. F. T. T. L. as follows:

Totals: 24 5 53
Referee: McCord, University of Illinois.

YEGG MEN POORLY PAID FOR WORK

Three Safes Blown at Arenzville Monday Night Brought Poor Returns

Safe blowers who worked in Arenzville Monday night were not very well rewarded for their efforts. Safes were blown at the offices of the Farmers-Arenzville League Grain Co., the Arenzville Produce Co. and the C. B. & O. office. At the grain company office the robbers secured $21 in cash and lesser sums at the other two places. The work was evidently done by experts, as the safe door had been blown off in the clean cut way that indicated experienced yeggmen.

The explosion was so well muffled that no one in the town was awakened. Ray Haney is C. B. & O. agent and W. L. Pfeil is manager of the produce company. The Cass county sheriff was notified and investigation was begun. Last night there had been on tangible clue discovered.

INTER-CHURCH SURVEY PLAN DISCUSSED

Rev. F. L. Starbuck of Peoria, Tells Church People of City of Survey Plan, a Part of the Inter-church Movement.

In accordance with plans made by the churches of the city, Rev. F. L. Starbuck of Peoria, state manager of the City Department of the Inter-church movement, came and spoke to a number of the representatives of the several churches in the city, including the pastors, officers of the church, the superintendents of Sunday schools and representatives of the several societies of the churches.

Fifty or more persons sat down to the excellent supper prepared by the ladies of the First Baptist church, and at the close of the repast a vote of thanks was tendered the women for the fine menu provided.

After the supper Rev. Mr. Landis, president of the Ministerial association, called the meeting to order and introduced Mr. Starbuck, who very carefully and pointedly presented the great program of the survey of the churches. This program is a part of a similar program being planned and carried out throughout the entire world, with the possible exception of war stricken Europe. It is interesting to know that when the people of Jacksonville are studying this wonderful co-operative plan, peoples in many of the so-called heathen nations are considering the same or a similar plan.

The general program was so clearly presented that all present voted to carry on this general type of work. A meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock Thursday, February 26, at the public library, when plans will be perfected to include all of the evangelical churches of the city. At that time a general chairman and executive committee and other committees will also be chosen.

Tuesday, March 2, is being reserved as the date on which a representative from the Peoria office will be here to finish up the details of the program for the survey in Jacksonville.

abuse his visitors' minds of the idea that American forces were winning the war because that was not true and was "hurting us with the allies."

In the course of his testimony Representative Byrnes said he had been depressed and disappointed at what Admiral Sims had told him in Paris and found relief from that feeling only when personal inquiry at Gen. Pershing's headquarters and in the service of supply had convinced him there had been no breakdown. Commenting on this statement in his rebuttal Admiral Sims said "all Americans who visited me abroad were shocked at what I had to tell them of the relative amount of work done by our forces."

He added that the American press fostered at home a disproportionate idea of the part Americans was playing in the war. Visitors as a rule, he said, imagine the American navy was doing half the anti-submarine patrol duty and always were "shocked" to learn that the United States had at no time contributed more than about seven per cent of the patrol craft.

Admiral Sims said reports were current that withdrawal of allied general staff representatives with the army had been followed by a staff breakdown and collapse of the transportation system behind the fighting lines. He attributed such reports, he said, to the usual "jealousies between armies" and had warned all to whom he spoke of these reports not to believe them.

NAME IS CHOSEN FOR ZAHN'S NEW GARAGE

"H-Z Auto Inn" Selected by Committee—Miss Ethel Carter Wins $25 Prize—Over 2000 Letters Received

"H-Z Auto Inn" is the name by which Howard Zahn's huge new garage, soon to be erected on the "Billy" Sunday lot, will be known, and Miss Ethel Carter, of Waverly, Ill., is winner of the $25 prize offered for a name by Mr. Zahn. Five persons sent in the name that was selected, but Miss Carter's letter was the first received, it being stamped "Jan. 21-11:37 a. m." The others were Kenneth A. Danskin, Jan. 31, Howard Lacey, Feb. 5, Henry D. Strawn, Feb. 9, Jane C. Hyer, Feb. 10.

If ever there was a man who had reason to believe that advertising is read, even if not always responded to, that man is Howard Zahn. Nearly two thousand letters were received in response to his advertisements offering $25 for a name, and the judging committee, composed of Messrs. Peck, Newman, Waltham, Hopkins and Whalin, had a long tedious job arranging the letters received and classifying them and decision was not reached until late Tuesday night. It may be added that the decision of the committee was unanimous. There were three hundred and forty-four different names suggested. Some of these names were suggested by as many as fifty different persons.

Miss Carter's letter appears below:

Waverly, Ill., Jan. 20, 1920.
Zahn's Garage, Jacksonville, Ill.
Dear sir—I wish to suggest the following name for your new garage, "H-Z Auto Inn." This name suggests a good lodging place for cars. It will serve as a good advertisement in papers, etc. It distinguishes this garage from your other one. Hoping this name will interest you, I remain,
Yours truly,
Ethel Carter.

Miss Carter is requested to call upon Mr. Zahn at her early convenience to receive her prize.

STAR CAMP R. N. A. HELD MEETING.

Kornfalfa Hog Feed
is a properly balanced feed. It is made of fine ground corn, ground barley, alfalfa meal, gluten, feed, tankage and molasses. All of these are good clean feeds in themselves. They are combined in just the right proportion. There is knowledge of hog feeding in every sack of Kornfalfa Hog Feed.

By all means buy a self-feeder or make one yourself. It is sensible, practical and efficient. Because we manufacture this feeder in large quantities, we can offer it to you at only $20.00, F. O. B. Kansas City (the actual cost of materials, making and handling.) It is six feet long, holds about six hundred pounds of feed and will take care of from thirty to forty hogs. Self-feeders of the same capacity made and sold for profit will cost you from $35.00 to $50.00.

The old-time method of meal-time feeding makes him ravenously hungry at feeding time. He bolts his food and overeats. His digestion isn't nearly so good as when he eats only a little at a time. When he gets real hungry he stops working for you. The thing he works with is feed and the self-feeder keeps it before him all the time.

Don't fail to use a self-feeder. Either buy one or build one yourself, today. If you want a Kornfalfa Self-Feeder, send us your order.

A Balanced Ration
Assuming you have decided to use a self-feeder, what will you put in it? Corn won't do. It hasn't enough grow stuff. It makes fat mostly. You need a feed that gives stretch to your hogs and at the same time fattens them. You don't need to make him stretch first and put weight on them afterwards. You can do both at the same time with the right kind of feed. You need a balanced ration.

We don't use humus, which is plain earth and has no feeding value, or ground screenings or oat hulls or similar trash in our feed. You won't buy these things in a sack by themselves, and because they have no value to you, we don't use them in making Kornfalfa Hog Feed. The hog cannot utilize them at a profit.

The tremendous success Kornfalfa Hog Feed has made is due to the fact that only good, clean feeds enter into it—the best of everything plus knowledge of hog feeding. Feeders are making hundreds of pounds of pork with from 336 to 400 pounds of Kornfalfa Hog Feed.

You need absolutely no other feed with Kornfalfa Hog Feed from weaning time to maturity. It is complete within itself. Just dump it into the self-feeder and let the hogs do the rest. Order from us today.

WHITE HALL HAS INFLUENZA DEATH

Mrs. George Chism First Victim of Disease—Child Found Dead in Bed.

White Hall, February 10. — The first death here as a result of the influenza epidemic is that of Mrs. George Chism, residing on Carrollton street, who died at 2:50 p. m. Monday from pneumonia. She had been ill about two weeks. Funeral services will be held at the home at 10 a. m. Wednesday, the discourse being delivered by Rev. O. A. Carmean, pastor of the First Baptist church, and the interment will be in the Martin's Prairie cemetery, six miles east of Roodhouse.

Mrs. Chism was 48 years of age, and was a native of this vicinity, being born on what is now the Hubbs farm in the Clay City neighborhood, east of White Hall. She was a daughter of Oscar Walker, deceased, and is survived by her mother, now Mrs. Margaret Nettles, and one brother, Otis Walker, residing on a farm east of Roodhouse, and a half brother, W. C. Nettles, of Chicago. She and Mr. Chism were married in 1907. She was very active in the affairs of the W. C. T. U., serving as the local president from some years, and was president of the Baptist ladies' guild at the time of her death. She was a life-long Baptist.

About two hours following the death of Mrs. Chism, an infant of Mr. and Mrs. Frank King was found dead in bed at the home on Douglas street. The mother had been treating the child before it went to sleep, and between 4 and 5 o'clock it died. An inquest was held Tuesday morning in the Fox undertaking rooms, and the jury returned a verdict of death of pneumonia superinduced by influenza. The jury consisted of J. W. Campbell, L. F. Dawdy, R. S. Dickson, W. F. Short, G. E. Bell and Carroll G. Roberts. Coroner T. H. Carmody came up from Carrollton and conducted the inquest. The funeral will be held at the home Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. Leo Howard, pastor of the M. E. church.

REBELLION IN STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends Indigestion and Sour, Acid Stomach

Lumps of undigested food cause pain. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just take a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the pain, acidity, indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal lunch without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless stomach antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.—Adv.

NAMES FOR NEW LAKE

I suggest we name the new lake "Still Water Lake."
FRED L. RUNKEL,
Nine years old.

The name "Woodland Lake" has been suggested by one of the citizens of Jacksonville as an appropriate name for the new dam.

Editor Journal:—
I have seen a number of names suggested for the new lake. Why not call it "Uneeda Lake" From the Country.

Chapin, Ill., Feb. 5, 1920.
Editor Journal:—
I suggest that we name our lake for our famous leader, one whom our dear soldier boys all honor—Lake Pershing.

A well known citizen suggests the new lake be named Luna Lake. He says the tides and rainfall are governed by the moon and therefore it seems eminently proper.

Mrs. Laura Lafayette of 403 East Lafayette avenue has suggested the name "Supply-Us" lake as a name for the New Dam. She has suggested this name because the new lake will sufficiently supply us with water.

Editor Journal:—
Seeing in Thursday morning's paper where a lady suggested naming our new lake "Uneeda Lake," I suggest that a more appropriate name would be "Wegota Lake."

Helen Rexroat Clark.

Editor Journal:—
Will you let an outsider suggest a name for the new lake? Why not call it Jacksonville lake? It was needed and is used by Jacksonville. It was planned and paid for by Jacksonville, then whose lake is it? Jacksonville's lake, to be sure.

A. J. LESLIE.

I would like something new and not so common as many of those already submitted.

Am very proud of Indian names especially for lakes and streams and would suggest the name "Lake Waubun." A Winnebago Indian word meaning "break of day." Early morning "dawn." It is easy to spell and pronounce and very euphonious.

It is also appropriate as an abundant supply of pure water will mean the dawn of a new era in many respects for our beautiful city.

E. J. K.

Editor Journal:—

As there are quite a number of people suggesting a name for our new lake I should like to also suggest a name. We had a long, long fight to secure this water and in the history of the world Democracy has had a long hard fight. We came out victorious with our water supply. At the same time Democracy came out victorious when crushed by German might. I therefore say call our lake "Lake Democracy." and may it last till the end of time. Gladys M. Carroll.

There have been some names for the new lake suggested, and what we have had about all of them from Chesapeake Bay to Puget Sound.

Now we will have to start in at Genesis and search through to Revelations, and as the good old book contains some names it would be some job.

Would suggest the Historic old name Morgan Lake, if that does not suit Mayor Crabtree and his committee name it Jacksonville City Lake. For the reason it was suggested by the people of the city. Election held by the people of the city. Bonds voted by the people of the city are going to be paid by the people of the city, and in all will be for the good of the present and future people of the city, if the committee thinks it would sound better to leave off the word lake and call it City Lake. All right the name City Lake would be a name the any child or grown up could pronounce with ease.

Yours Truly,
Chas. E. Seymon.

OBITUARY

Heaton.

Berry Samuel Heaton, the eldest child of Samuel and Margaret Heaton, was born Feb. 25, 1884, on the Heaton homestead near Lynnville, Morgan county, Ill. Almost his entire life was spent in the immediate neighborhood of his birthplace.

He attended school at Lynnville and afterwards graduated from Brown's Business college at Jacksonville, Ill. For a short time thereafter he held a position in a railroad office in St. Louis, but he concluded that the farm was more to his liking and returned to his home, where he began to farm for himself on the place that he owned at the time of his death.

As a farmer he was more than ordinarily successful. He was a close student of modern methods in agriculture, and in many respects his farm was a model.

In 1909 he was married to Jennie B. Allen, who passed from this life in April, 1911. To this union one child was born, Frances Elizabeth, who survives him.

On December 25, 1913, he was married to Mabel F. Gordon, who with two small children, Gordon Bennett and Lucile Aileen are left to mourn his untimely death. He was a faithful member of the Lynnville Christian church, serving as a deacon for a number of years and always, even up to a short time before his death, he was interested in every forward movement of the community.

He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, which had charge of the services at the grave.

The illness of the deceased was of a particularly distressing character. A little more than two years ago he was found to be suffering from the most deadly form of cancer known. He knew that his chances for recovery were very limited, but he made a wonderful fight and exhausted every resource that he might get well. His fortitude in the midst of his suffering was inspiring.

Those who visited him were greeted with a cheerful word and it seemed to be his chief concern that the lives of his family should be clouded as little as possible by the sadness of his condition. He suffered intensely toward the last, but a few hours before the end he fell asleep and thus passed away at 8:45 Thursday morning, Jan. 29, 1920, being 35 years, 11 months and 4 days old.

The funeral was held Saturday morning, Jan. 31, at 10:30 from the Lynnville Christian church, the pastor, Rev. L. R. Cronkhite, officiating. The burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery, Jacksonville. In his departure his wife and children lost a loving and devoted husband and father, and the community loses a citizen of high principles and unquestionable integrity.

Mr. John Kearns, President,

Musicians Union, City.

My Dear Mr. President:

Will you please express to the membership of your Union my sincere regret at my inability to be with you on the occasion of your Musicians Ball, but only a previous engagement which could not be postponed keeps me from accepting. I greatly appreciate these invitations from the various organizations, because I believe it is something of an approval of what the present city administration is trying to do, and furthermore I get lots of good out of contact with such men as compose yours and other organizations. I never mix with a group of people but what I learn something, and many times things of value to the city of Jacksonville. The City Council wishes to express to you their appreciation of your loyal support on the platform of "Everything for the good of the city."

Jacksonville needs and certainly must have a band. It is a unit in the upbuilding of every town. Jacksonville should be able to support one. The band of Jacksonville, which ever one it has been, has always been loyal to the city ever since I can remember. I understand that the musicians of the city are now contemplating a reorganization of an organization of a band. You can count on me for whatever support I am able to give you, and think that I can pledge the support of the City Council in a like manner.

Assuring you that it is a keen disappointment to me not to be with you this evening, and believe me as ever your friend, I am

Very respectfully,

E. E. CRABTREE, Mayor

MRS. SNOWDON DEAD

IN PEORIA

Deceased Was Wife of Dr. Snowdon Well Known to D. O. K. K. Member.

J. L. Kent, who is an officer of one of the Pythian lodges of Peoria, in a recent letter to Jewell Scott, enclosed a clipping from the Peoria Star telling of the death Mrs. L. R. Snowdon. Many Knights of Pythias and also Knights of Khorassan are well acquainted with Dr. Snowdon, who for some time held the office of imperial prince in the D. O. K. K.

The Star in making reference to Mrs. Snowdon's death had the following paragraphs:

Mrs. Irene Snowdon, wife of Dr. LeRoy R. Snowdon, died this morning at 8:45 o'clock at her home, 121 N. University street, after an illness of ten days from pneumonia. While it was known she was seriously ill for the past few days, a fatal outcome was not anticipated, and announcement of her demise will come as a severe shock to her exceptionally large number of friends who cherished for her tenderest affection and esteem that her gentle womanliness and sincerity had won.

Mrs. Snowdon was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kent and was born in Warsaw, Ill., August 11, 1878. Her father was in the railroad business and the family resided in various places until coming to Peoria in July, 1889.

Her marriage to Dr. Snowdon was in this city on January 6, 1901. While never happier than with her friends, she was not fond of society, but found her greatest joy in her home and in her church work. She was a member of the Union Congregational church and was among the most earnest in the various details of its activities.

She is survived by her husband and her mother, Mrs. Laura A. Kent, upon whom she has lavished the wealth of her love and devotion especially since an automobile accident a year or more ago that left the elder lady with one useless arm. She also leaves one brother, J. L. Kent, supervising agent of the T. P. & W. railroad in this city.

BIRTH OF A RACE
COMING TO RIALTO

From the dawn of creation, down through the ages, to the signing of the peace treaty in the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles, mankind has been struggling for true democracy; for brotherhood, for peace. This is the theme of the epic photoplay, "The Birth of a Race" which will be shown at the Rialto Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

To portray this brilliant drama of romance, tragedy and achievement, from the Garden of Eden to the present day, the producers have selected only those great historical episodes which marked the advancement of the great ideal. A dramatic and thrilling story of the present day, and of America completes the picture.

Coming down the ages, we find the Hebrew race in slavery to the Egyptians, and we see a great leader, Moses, arise to lead his people to the promised land. Centuries pass, and Rome rules the world. Again cruelty reigns. The Christ is sent to warn men against their sins, to teach them to love one another, to preach the brotherhood of man. This Man of the People is crucified but his teachings remain to guide the world.

Prof. Fred W. Schoneman, a member of the faculty at the school, will be the scoutmaster and has many plans in prospect for the boys. It is probable that another troop will be organized at the institution in the near future, as the boys are showing a keen interest in the movement. FARMERS ELEVATOR AT WHITE HALL

Organization of White Hall Farmers' Elevator Co. Recently Completed—Other Items of Interest from Greene County.

White Hall, February 9.—Completion of the organization of the White Hall Farmers' Elevator Co. on Saturday brings up a very interesting chapter on the farmers' elevator movement in Greene county. The White Hall company held a meeting in the club room of the Knights of Pythias hall Saturday afternoon, and in a few minutes the sum of $3,000 was subscribed to complete the full payment on the capital stock of $20,000. The seven directors then chosen are Clarence E. Potts, Lincoln Hawk, R. L. Davis, Frank C. Griswold, L. G. Griswold, Elmer Griswold and F. D. Vossler. The directors did not complete their organization, but it was the desire of the stockholders that Mr. Potts be made president, and this wish will be carried out. No stockholder is permitted to hold more than one share, there being two hundred shares at $100 each, the bulk of which is held by farmers, there being considerable opposition to business people in town holding any of the stock. The purchase of the White Hall mill and elevators at $10,000 was ratified, and the money was ordered paid. A man is now on the job looking after the sale of feed, and it looks to be very likely that the services of Frank French will be secured as miller. He has charge of the milling all the years that the firm of French & Johnson owned and operated the property, but which has been idle since A. J. Barnett sold to Minier & Hanks a couple of years ago. The new company gets the property at a most attractive figure. Grant McAdams, residing in the Sooty Mill neighborhood, ten miles southwest of White Hall, is the father of the farmers' elevator movement in Greene county. The first organization is the Kaser elevator, located three miles west of Carrollton on the Carrollton-Carlville line of the C. & A., which was effected on June 1, 1912. The first year crops were handled on a dump arrangement, and in 1913 the present Kaser elevator was built at a cost of $8,000, and has since been enlarged and improved until the investment represented about $10,000 when the price of building material began to soar. This initial elevator encountered all the obstacles and opposition that was possible to discredit the movement. Mr. McAdams had a fight on his hands against the influences of commission and elevator interests that was akin to the fight of organized labor against captains and autocrats of industry. The Kaser elevator in the past five years has netted $10,000 on its original investment, which gives the McAdams paper a stock value of 400 per cent.

Kane came into line by forming a farmers' company on June 1, 1914, and erecting the present elevator at that point. Its success is shown by the annual statement published in the county papers last week, showing net earnings of almost $7,000. In 1915 a company was formed at Wrights, and the elevator there was built in 1916. It succeeded so well as to bring into line its strong opponent, Greenfield, where a concrete elevator is to be built this year on the plans of the farmers' elevator at Carrollton that has been built in the meantime. In fact the farmers' elevators are becoming so numerous and successful that we came near omitting mention of the largest concern in the bunch at Carrollton, where the opposition to the movement was originally centered. Berdan has organized to build this year, and on January 24th last at a meeting in White Hall it was voted to rebuild the elevator at Drake as a farmers' elevator. The Smith Orchard Co. had already decided to provide elevator facilities at Drake, and a move is now on foot to bring these two Drake elements together on the proposition there in order to avoid expensive competition. This move is being furthered by President C. E. Potts of the White Hall Farmers' Elevator Co. It is said that the vote to rebuild at Drake in opposition to the Smith interests stood 7 to 1, but it is believed that a consolidation of interests will be effected.

Elmer Griswold will represent the White Hall Farmers' Elevator Co. at the state meeting in Peoria this week.

One White Hall farmer has originated a plan of securing a supply of manure for fertilization purposes. He has arranged with the railroad people to haul manure from all stock cars in the local yards, and until he has gained a sufficient supply from this source he is hoping that the practice will not come into general use. The available supply is large.

White Hall Folks are Talkers.
A force of nine operators are used at the local exchange of the Illinois Telephone Co. On Saturday this number had dwindled down to four to handle the business through the 24 hours, and it was decided to keep a record of the number of calls handled by each operator. From 7 a. m. Saturday to 7 a. m. Sunday the total number of calls footed up 3,392, of which 73 were long distance. There were 664 phones in service. The local operators who doubled up and handled this business are as follows: Dorothy Callans, 9 hours, 1,015; Cora Clark, 9 hours, 1,124; Edith Culbertson, 12 hours, 1,124; Ollie Fitzjarrel, 9 hours, 56 calls. The latter handled the board between 9 p. m. and 7 a. m., hours when the calls are few and far between, allowing for "hay." The reduced force was on account of sickness. No record was kept at the office of the Central Union.

Restore Train Service.
Assurance has been received that action will soon be taken to rearrange the present schedule on the C. & A. so as to meet the objections of the towns between Roodhouse and St. Louis. It is proposed to have a train leave St. Louis about 8 a. m. for Roodhouse, and there will be a train south in the evening. The present situation as it affects Carrollton and Jerseyville is serious, but at White Hall the situation is met by the train service on the Burlington.

FORMER MEREDOSIA MAN DIES IN IOWA

Fred Grimsley Passes Away at Muscatine, Iowa—W. C. T. U. to Give Valentine Social—Other Meredosia News.

Meredosia, Feb. 10.—Horace Jones received word Sunday from his sister, Mrs. Fred Grimsley, at Muscatine, Iowa, announcing the serious illness of her husband, who had been operated on for appendicitis. Mr. Jones left that evening for the above city. On Monday the Meredosia Women's order of this place received the announcement of Mr. Grimsley's death. The Grimsley family were residents of this place until a few years ago when they left for Muscatine.

Sam Kuhlman, Harry Leonhard and John Wilker were Jacksonville visitors Monday.

Charles W. Wingham, who has been making an extended visit in Springfield spent Monday here returning in the evening.

Mrs. James Galaway, L. F. Berger, George Unland and George Hyde attended an executive meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Jacksonville Friday.

GRIP, INFLUENZA

Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive.

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and sniff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up a wall of defense against "flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza. Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at druggists. Guaranteed.—Adv.

SNAKE OIL

Positively Relieves Pain in Few Minutes

Try it right now for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, sore stiff and swollen joints, pain in the head, back and limbs, corns, bunions, etc. After one application pain usually disappears as if by magic.

A new remedy used internally and externally for coughs, colds, croup, influenza, sore throat, diphtheria and tonsillitis.

This Oil is conceded to be the most penetrating remedy known. Its prompt and immediate effect in relieving pain is due to the fact that it penetrates to the affected parts at once. As an illustration, pour ten drops on the thickest piece of sole leather and it will penetrate this substance through and through in three minutes.

Accept no substitute. This great oil is golden red color only. Get it at Armstrong & Armstrong Drug Stores.—Adv.

114 EGGS A DAY NOW INSTEAD OF 25 A DAY

That Means About $105 Extra Income Per Month for Mrs. Ropp.

"I have 200 hens, including late pullets not old enough to lay, and had been getting 25 to 30 eggs a day. Then I tried Don Sung in the feed, and am now getting 107 to 114 eggs a day."—Mrs. Essie B. Ropp, R. R. 2, Little, Ind.

Mrs. Ropp got this increase of 7 dozen a day in the middle of winter. At 50 cents a dozen, 30 days a month, this makes $105 extra income a month. The Don Sung for her 200 hens cost her about $2.50 per month. You can see how well it paid her, and we'll guarantee it will pay you.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded. Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

HOW TO GET RID OF YOUR COLD

The quick way is to use Dr. King's New Discovery

DON'T put off until tonight what you can do today. Step into your druggist's and buy a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Start taking it at once. By the time you reach home you'll be on the way to recovery.

This standard family friend has been breaking colds, coughs, grippe attacks, and croup for more than fifty years. It's used wherever sure-fire relief is appreciated. Children and grownups alike can use it—there is no disagreeable after-effect. Your druggist has it. 50c. and $1.20 bottles. Give it a trial.

Bowels Begging for Help

Torpid liver pleading for assistance? How careless to neglect these things when Dr. King's New Life Pills so promptly, mildly, yet effectively come to their relief!

Leaving the system uncleaned, clogged bowels unmoved, results in health-destructive after-effects. Let stimulating, tonic-in-action, Dr. King's New Life Pills bring you the happiness of regular, normal bowel and liver functioning. Keep feeding it, doing the work of a man or woman who rolls in it. All druggists.

Miss Leila Hatfield Pleasantly Surprised on Birthday Recently—John Pine Sojourning in California—Other News From Bluffs.

Bluffs, Feb. 10.—Mrs. Carl Ritter was hostess to a party of young people at her home Saturday night in honor of the eighteenth birthday of her sister, Miss Leila Hatfield. Miss Hatfield resides at Naples and she with her sister Mrs. Ritter spent the fore part of the evening at the "movies" and during their absence the guests arrived and quietly awaited their home coming. The house was in darkness and as they entered the living room the lights were flashed on rivaling the happy party. The affair was planned by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ritter and was a complete surprise for Miss Leila. The evening was passed in progressive rook and music, after which a dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. The birthday cake was lighted by eighteen candles and was cut by Miss Hatfield and each guest given a bountiful portion. The following out-of-town guests were present: Misses Margaret, Mildred and Beulah Green, Norma Abrams, Mabel Haley, Messrs Wayne Haley, Richard Hatfield, Harold Hatfield and Mrs. Minnie Pine of Naples. LIGHT RECEIPTS SENDS CORN UP

Chicago, Ill. Feb. 10.—Corn made a steep continuous upturn in price today chiefly owing to scantiness of receipts and to prospects of a railroad strike. The market closed strong 2-7-8c to 4-3-8c net higher, with May $1.28 1-2 to $1.28 5-8 and July $1.25 1-2 to $1.25 3-4. Oats gained 1 3-4 @ 1 7-8 to 2 3-4c and provisions 1 2c to 50c.

At first opinion among corn traders was divided as to the market effect of a railroad strike but there was complete unanimity taken to hasten the crop movement had so far failed. Advances indicated that country shippers who had been clamoring for cars were no longer anxious to obtain an immediate outlet for grain, and instead preferred to risk indefinite delay in the hope of a return of higher prices. Bullish sentiment was considerably augmented in the last part of the day as a result of fear spreading that the lack of adequate supplies at primary centers would assume an acute aspect in case the threatened railway strike became a reality. Big estimates of export business in rye and oats tended also to lift the corn market.

Shorts in oats were active buyers. Furthermore, some prominent longers reinstated holdings. Provisions rose with grain and hogs despite packers selling of lard.

"Give Me a Quart of Oil"

A Careless Request That Invites Costly Penalties

You drive up to a garage. The garage man comes out. "Give me a quart of oil," you say. The "quart of oil" is poured into the reservoir. You drive on. You think you have amply protected your engine. But have you?

Get Back Your Grip On Health

Physician Gives Practical Advice on What to Do To Help Build Up Your Strength Power and Endurance—Explains

How Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron—Helps Put Renewed Vim and Energy Into the Veins of the Weak, Nervous and Run-Down—

Thousands of men and women are impairing their constitutions by laying themselves open to illness and literally losing their grip on health simply because their blood is thinning out and possibly starving through lack of iron.

To possess the power, energy and endurance that win the blood should be rich in strength-giving iron. For this purpose physicians below explain why they prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which by enriching the blood and creating thousands of new red blood cells often quickly transforms the flabby flesh, toneless tissues and pallid cheeks of weak, anemic men and women into a glow of health. It increases the strength of delicate, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances.

In explaining why he regards iron as absolutely essential to the greatest development of physical and mental power, Dr. George H. Baker, formerly Physician and Surgeon, Mountbush Memorial Hospital of New Jersey, says:

"Refined foods and modern methods of cooking have robbed us of such of the iron which Nature intended we should receive, and for supplying this deficiency and increasing the red blood corpuscles I know of nothing more effective than organic iron—Nuxated Iron. The fact that Nuxated Iron is today being used by over three million people annually as a tonic, strength and blood-builder, is in itself an evidence of tremendous public confidence and I am convinced that if others would take Nuxated Iron when they feel weak and run-down it would help make a nation of stronger, healthier men and women."

Commenting on the use of Nuxated Iron as a tonic, strength and blood-builder, Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, said:

"In my opinion the greatest cure to the health and strength of American people of today is the alarming deficiency of iron in their blood. Lack of sufficient iron in the blood has ruined many a man's nerves and utterly robbed him of that virile force and stamina which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life."

"Therefore I strongly advise those who feel the need of a strength and blood builder to get a physician's prescription for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—or if you don't want to go to this trouble, then purchase only Nuxated Iron in its original packages and see that this particular name (Nuxated Iron) appears on the package."

Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were advised by all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had, in some cases, been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit.

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron, recommended above, is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the other iron preparations, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser as they will refund your money. It is dispensed in this city by all good druggists.

The TORO Way of Motorizing the Farm

The TORO is the final achievement in useful, adaptable farm power equipment that makes the motorization of the farm complete. It is two standard machines in one—an efficient two-row cultivator and a dependable tractor. Each operates independently of the other and the dual equipment does the work of from two to four horses.

Readily Changed
—from Cultivator to Tractor
—from Tractor to Cultivator

Use as a tractor to pull two 10 or 12 inch plows and to prepare ground for seeding and plant seed. Then use as a cultivator until harvest season and change back into a tractor for all plowing, hauling, belt work, etc. The conversion is as simple as changing a tire on your car.
